It's All True – International Documentary Festival opens this Wednesday, September 23, same day of the beginning of the festival's second phase in 2020, the call for entries of films with a view to participate in the event in 2021. Founded and directed by film critic Amir Labaki, the festival will hold its 26th edition between April 8 and 18, 2021.

The deadline for inscriptions is December 18, 2020. Regulations can be checked and inscriptions submitted through the link http://etudoverdade.com.br/inscricao_2021/br/.

Acknowledged by USA's Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences as a festival that classifies for the Oscar, It's All True automatically qualifies its award-winning productions in the Brazilian and international Feature-Length/Medium-length and short-subjects competitions for direct inscription in the race for the Oscars® for best feature-length and short-subject documentary.

It's All True is sponsored by Itaú and Sabesp; in a partnership with SESC-SP and culturally sponsored by Itaú Cultural and Spcine. It also counts with the execution of the Ministry of Tourism, the Government of the State of São Paulo's Cultural and Creative Economy Secretariat and the Municipal Cultural Secretariat of São Paulo City Hall.
