IT'S ALL TRUE EXTENDS ITS SUBMISSIONS DEADLINE

Submissions open until December 9, 2022

28th Festival: April 13 to 23, 2023

The submissions deadline for the 28th É Tudo Verdade/It's All True International Documentary Film Festival has been extended to December 9, for Brazilian and foreign documentaries. Founded and directed by the film critic Amir Labaki, the most important event devoted to non-fiction film production in South America will take place simultaneously in São Paulo and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, back as a presential event, from April 13 to 23, 2023. The regulations and submissions form are available at www.etudoverdade.com.br.

To qualify for the festival's competitive selection, Brazilian feature and medium-length documentaries must have their première at the event. No such restriction holds for Brazilian documentaries in the short-film competition, though premiere status is preferred. Likewise, first-screening privilege is required for Brazilian films showing in the Special Screenings and The State of the Art informative showcase. Only foreign films offering Brazilian premiere status are eligible for the festival.

By invitation of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences in Hollywood, É Tudo Verdade/It's All True is a qualifying festival for the Oscar®. Winners of the Best Brazilian documentary in the feature-length and short documentary categories and also in the international competitions automatically qualify for Academy Award consideration in the Best Documentary Feature and short film categories. Since 2020, É Tudo Verdade/It's All True has also been an official festival partner of the Cannes Docs | Marché du Film at Cannes Film Festival.
