É TUDO VERDADE/IT'S ALL TRUE EXTENDS ITS SUBMISSIONS DEADLINE

The submissions continues through to December 15, 2023

29th Festival: April 4 to 14, 2024

É Tudo Verdade/It's All True 2024 – 29th International Documentary Film Festival has extended its submissions deadline for Brazilian and International documentaries to December 15. Founded and directed by the film critic Amir Labaki, the premier event for non-fiction film in South America will take place simultaneously at venues in São Paulo and Rio de Janeiro between April 4 and 14 next year. The regulations and registration form are available on the Festival website www.etudoverdade.com.br.

Medium and feature-length documentaries eligible for the Brazilian competition must be national premieres. No such requirement is made for Brazilian short films, though premiere status is preferred. The same criteria hold for Brazilian titles selected for the Special Sessions and the State of Things showcase. Only international documentaries previously unscreened in Brazil are eligible for entry.

On the invitation of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences in Hollywood, É Tudo Verdade/It's All True is a qualifying festival for the Oscar®. Since 2020, It's All True has also been an official festival partner on the organization of Cannes Docs at the Festival de Cannes – Marché du Film.
